

Santa Cruz Cooperative School Honor Code

Introduction

We, as members of our SCCS community, recognize the utmost importance of honesty, integrity, and moral behavior in creating an environment of universal trust and respect. Our commitment to these values is the foundation of the SCCS honor code.

Core Values:

Our honor code is based on the SCCS core values of respect, kindness, integrity, responsibility, resilience, and collaboration. These values will guide our community into a better and brighter future.

Respect for Others:

We pledge to treat every member of our community with dignity and respect, thus embracing diversity. We value our differences through open communication and do not tolerate disrespect based on any kind of social or ethnic difference.

Academic Integrity:

We pledge to uphold academic integrity in the highest regard. This includes prioritizing originality in our work, proper citation of academic sources, and refraining from academic dishonesty. We acknowledge the value of honest collaboration and believe in its importance for creating honorable and resourceful individuals.

Expectations:

We pledge to uphold these standards of behavior, both academically and socially. We commit to treating each other with dignity and equity, fostering an inclusive and respectful environment.

Community Involvement:

The honor code's success relies on the involvement and engagement of our entire community. We encourage all members of SCCS to commit to our core values, thus making our community inclusive, innovative and united.
