OUR SCHOOL

Founded in 1959, Santa Cruz Cooperative School (SCCS) is a private, coeducational day school offering a rigorous college preparatory program from Pre-Kindergarten through Grade 12. The curriculum is aligned with the U.S. Common Core State Standards, and English is the primary language of instruction, except in world language courses. SCCS graduates earn both American and Bolivian high school diplomas.

ACCREDITATION

SCCS has maintained accreditation by the Bolivian Ministry of Education since 1960 (Resolution 253) and continuous international accreditation since 1987, initially through the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) and now through Cognia.

SCCS LEARNER PROFILE PK- 12 Private School with 695 total students - 13% have dual citizenship

SCCS students strive to be:

- Inquirers, critical thinkers and problem solvers who cultivate curiosity, develop research skills, evaluate information critically, construct meaningful knowledge and apply it in the real world;
- Collaborators and leaders with strong cultural, global and environmental awareness who develop strong interpersonal and team-related skills, work autonomously and with others, learn from each other and contribute to the learning of others;
- Effective communicators who express themselves confidently in more than one language and who understand and are able to communicate ideas in writing, verbally and digitally under the consideration of perspectives of other individuals and groups;
- Creative and innovative learners who identify opportunities of scientific, economic and social growth and who independently and cooperatively explore and generate new ideas and strategies to become ambassadors of change.
